HELLO FRIEND

We're Glo & Dave

At Bellamy Productions, we believe in one simple truth:

Love recognizes love.

For us, photography is about connection. Every couple has a story worth preserving, and every chapter deserves to be remembered with honesty, intention, and heart.

Outside of photography, we're raising our two daughters, Bella and Fae, exploring the North Carolina coast, spending time outdoors, and dreaming up our next adventure together. We're the kind of people who appreciate slow mornings, meaningful conversations, and the beauty found in everyday moments.

Those little moments are what inspire the way we photograph.

Whether it's the nervous excitement before a proposal, the joyful laughter during an engagement session, or the quiet glance you share when you think no one is watching, we're always looking for the moments that feel genuine.

Because while beautiful portraits matter, it's the authentic connection, the happy tears, the uncontrollable laughter, and the little in-between moments that tell the real story.

Love Notes

We had an amazing engagement photo-shoot with Glo. She came more prepared than we were with positions and poses and we went through all of them in short order. The shoot was fun too, we all had a good time with it. Would recommend!

Max & Julia

★★★★★

Made our engagement photos one of the easiest things I've ever done. Great communication, extremely professional, and captured a moment we are going to look at forever. HIGHLY recommend (coming from an extremely picky person) Bellamy Productions.

Nick & Sarah

My fiancé and I had a wonderful time taking photos on the beach with our two dogs! Our engagement photos turned out amazingly, despite the gloomy weather, and the overall experience was very pleasant! We felt comfortable and I truly appreciate that my photo ideas were completely taken into consideration!!
